Many Business Men Will Visit Maui

Large Number Assured From Honolulu And Hilo Will Send Big Contingent To Civic Convention

That it is the intention of Honolulu business men to attend the Civic Convention to be held on Maui October 9, 10 and 11, is evidenced by the large list of delegates from the various clubs which were turned in to Raymond C. Brown, nearly 100 men have signed their intention of coming to Maui, and if Hawaii follows suit the plan which was broached at the last Chamber of Commerce meeting held in Hilo, there will be about 50 representatives from the Big Island. With this number visiting her for the convention and the many people who will undoubtedly be attracted to the fair, Maui should have her hands full as hostess to the island representatives. The following are those who have expressed their intention of coming from Honolulu:

Chamber of Commerce of Honolulu:—W. F. Dillingham, W. J. Forbes, Wm. Thompson, W. O. Smith, W. C. McGonagle, G. H. Angus, C. W. Spitz, L. M. Judd, J. E. Boyle, G. P. Wilder, Edgar Henriques, C. C. ## Lahaina Man Gets Doctor's License

Four of the eleven applicants for license to practice medicine in the Territory, who were examined before the territorial board of medical examiners from Monday to Thursday of last week, have passed their examinations and Monday were certificated as fully qualified to practice their profession in Hawaii. The four were Dr. George Webb, of Lahaina, Maui; Dr. W. A. Christensen, of Schofield Barracks; Dr. Irving E. Charlesworth, of the Department Hospital, Fort Shafter, and Dr. B. Mobbs of Honolulu.

Much Improvement In Wailuku Orpheum

Maui moving picture fans have noted a considerable change in the Wailuku Orpheum during the last two weeks and the theater has also noticed an increase in the number of patrons. Both of the above are the natural results of a general clean-up and improvement policy inaugurated by Manager Ross since his recent retaking over of the management of the Maui Amusement Company. The theater has been repainted and disinfected throughout, seats have been repaired, all of which is very welcome to local theater goers. That the new orchestra is appreciated goes without saying. Manager Ross has also secured the services of a new operator in the person of Peter Ledward, who is considered the best on the island in his line.

HELP THE COMMITTEE

"Have you any needle-work or cookery which you would like to exhibit at the coming Fair?"

Owing to the many duties that befall the Home Economics Committee the members composing it are unable to come up to each individual with the above query.

It therefore wishes to state through this medium that it would greatly appreciate being notified of anything in line of needle-work or cookery that anyone wishes to exhibit.

Baby Show To Be Feature At Fair

Considerable Interest Being Shown In Coming Event—Preparatory Work Been Going On For Some Time

Considerable interest is being shown in the coming Baby Show which will be one of the features at the Fair next month. Work on the care of babies has for sometime now, been receiving its due share of attention on this island. It is being carried very successfully in Wailuku by the Alexander House Settlement, and in the various camps of the plantations, by the establishment of day nurseries, under the supervision of trained workers, and by visiting nurses, who go in to the homes, suggesting and showing the mothers the proper handling and feeding of their babies.

Mothers should take their babies to the nearest nurse in charge of this work and have the necessary weights and measures taken before October 1st. Race or creed counts not at all and every mother is welcome.

Wild Pig Killed In Waikapu Valley

A 397 avoirdupois black and white wild pig, the possessor of tusks 3 inches long, was shot and killed last Tuesday in the deep recesses of Waikapu Valley, by William Viela, Aki Wo Swoong and Humeume.

After tracking the monster a night and 2 days the hunter and a companion finally cornered their game in a cave. The boar showed fight but a couple of shots on the forehead settled the issue.

Many are the tales told concerning this one particular pig, which, during the past three years, has roamed about in the Waikapu Valley. Pursued time and time again during this period the boar displayed a very elusive nature. Hence it is that William Viela, Aki Wo Swoong and Humeume can well be proud of their prowess in running to earth the wild pig of Waikapu Valley.

Reduced Rates For Maui In Fair Week

In order to give Maui a chance to have plenty of visitors to the fair in October, an announcement has been made by the Inter-Island Steamship Navigation Company that a one and a half round trip fare will be charged passengers from Honolulu to Maui, or one and a half times the one way fare. The Mauna Kea will leave Honolulu Wednesday morning, October 8, for Lahaina, and the Claudine will leave Wednesday afternoon, the same date, for Kahului. The Mauna Kea will return October 10 from Lahaina at midnight, and the Claudine Saturday night, October 11, from Kahului. This will give all visitors a chance to see the fair and attend all the meetings of the Civic Convention up to the last minute.

Opening Game Of Series Tonight

This evening at 7:30 sharp the Athletics and Lahainas will open the second series of the Maui Basketball League in the Gymnasium followed in turn by the Rubes-Chinese tilt. Kahului rests.

Lahaina is entering into the fray weakened by the loss of the St. Louis College stars, Silva and Farden, who have returned to school. With West, Almeida and De Rego in the lineup West Maui contingent is not worrying much.

In the second game the Rubes and Chinese seem to be evenly matched and, in the opinion of the wisecracks, the quintet getting the most breaks will come out ahead.

The Masquerade Ball at the Paila Orpheum last Saturday night for the benefit of the Owls was a huge success. More than 500 people were present and a most enjoyable time was held up to a late hour. Many prizes were given in the course of the evening.

Wireless Experts Pay Maui A Visit

Wireless Station May Be Moved From Lahaina To This Side Of Island—Several Improvement Inaugurated

Lieutenant Laird, District Radio Material Officer, accompanied by M. A. Mulrony, expert civilian radio aid for the 14th Naval District, visited Maui early this week on investigation work.

Several changes, all to the better have been inaugurated, in the radio service, the most striking being that all messages between Inter-island points will show the exact time message is filed by sender.

While here the officer rigged up his radio apparatus at one of the local hotels. To show that the radio station was no joke the Lieutenant cut in on Japan, then Pearl Harbor, San Francisco and San Diego. Early Monday evening he was busily engaged in receiving messages.

A bill before Congress at the present time provides for a radio station at Wailuku. Much will depend upon the report of the expert regarding the static conditions of Wailuku and general radio conditions. Should a permanent station be established here it is not unlikely that the station at Lahaina will be dismantled.

Champions To Take On Picked Maui Team

A ball game between the Asahis, 1919 Junior League champions of Maui, and the Al's Beauts, a collection of stars from various teams of the minor circuit, is scheduled to begin at 3 p. m., next Sunday on the local diamond.

The Asahis have one advantage over the picked nine team work. This is however, in no wise bothering Al Reis, manager of the opposing aggregation, who is confident that with his galaxy of tossers he can pull one over the Nipponese.

Reis has selected the following men to workout Sunday: Al Reis, p.; Pomba, c.; F. Bal, 1b.; Wells Cummings, and Ed. Rodriguez, 2b.; Joe Rodriguez and Aloy, 3b.; Wm. Cummings, ss.; Shim, if.; Joe Silva, cf.; Wid. Affonso, rf.

The Asahis lineup is as follows: Tadashi, p.; Masaichi, c.; Kenichi, 1b.; Iku, 2b.; Kaneichi, 3b.; Yanagi, ss.; Kido, if.; Isami, cf.; Hide, rf.

Honolulu Team Coming Next Week

On Friday the 26 day of this month the Asahis Club of Honolulu leaves that city to engage local teams on the 27, 28 and 29. The Nipponese ball players are coming up on the invitation of the local Japanese, headed by Seichi Itamura the genial manager of the Wailuku Asahis.

During the Fair week another invasion of Maui will take place, the Braves presumably being the visitors. Three games in all will be played by the visitors during the holidays, 2 on the Fair Grounds and the third and final on the local diamond in Wailuku.

Unless Maui wishes to taste the same bitter defeat as administered by the Honolulu Chinese a couple of months back, it behooves our ball players to get busy and do some hard practice.

Dangerous Fire Narrowly Averted

Fire broke out in the yard of the Bailey Building, opposite the Maui hotel last Saturday morning at 10 a. m. and were it not for the prompt work of the Fire Department the entire block would probably have gone up in smoke.

The fire which had its origin in a rubbish heap spreading rapidly to the little tool house nearby. A garden hose owned by Mr. Vettesen was powerless to stay the flames but as soon as the engine directed its steam on the conflagration the fire was extinguished.

A cigarette carelessly tossed, or children playing with matches are theories advanced for the cause.

Maui May Be In Luck After All

Hawaiian Band Will Probably Come To Convention If Expenses Paid—Vacation Not To Interfere.

It's never so bad but that it might be worse. Last week Maui was mourning the fact that through a government edict the Royal Hawaiian band would not pay a visit to the Valley Isle during Fair Week early in October. The board of supervisors however have a different opinion on this matter, and at their meeting Tuesday night decided that there was no reason why the band should not make the trip to Maui, providing the expenses were paid by the civic convention entertainment committee. Pacheco wanted to know why the band members should have a month's vacation when all other municipal employees received only two weeks. The band is to get a vacation, but the Honolulu supervisors for once are siding with Maui, and will see to it that the vacation does not interfere with the success of the convention.
